DCO Form V1.1

Policy on Events and Activities on Campus

1. No professional, student or community service event or activity, no matter the size or context, is to be organized on the YU campus for males or females without PRIOR written permission from the YU President.
2. It is the responsibility of the event or activity planner or organizer to secure the initial approval from his/her direct manager or dean, who then is supposed to forward his/her recommendation to the university president in order to seek final approval.
3. This policy overrides all previously-issued policies in this regard effective 1st of May 2018 and applies to all on-campus events and activities.
4. Violators of this policy will be subject for formal investigation, and possibly disciplinary actions by YU.

Exceptions

The University Council reserves the right to decide on any situation/circumstances outside the conditions stated in this policy.
