“Connecting Knowledge & Learning”

Welcome Message

Dear Students, Faculty, and Staff,

Welcome to the 29th issue of the YU Library Bulletin! Our goal is to keep you informed about new resources, services, and events that support your learning and research. This academic year 2025/26, we are focusing on expanding our digital collections, improving study spaces, and strengthening research support.

We encourage you to explore the latest arrivals, make use of our digital platforms, and participate in the orientation/workshops and activities we organize. The library is not just a place to read and study—it is a hub for knowledge, collaboration, and innovation.

We invite all of you to engage actively with the services we offer and to share your feedback with us so that we can serve you better.

Warm Regards,

Mr. Sultan AlShammari

General Supervisor of Libraries

introduction:

Here at Al Yamamah University Library Riyadh, we are always striving to improve the services we provide to our Library users. The current Library bulletin contains a list of databases and other print publications (English/Arabic) both purchased and gift for the libraries during the Academic Year 2024/2025 and much other useful information available in this bulletin. We hope you will find something of interest, and we welcome any feedback that will help us make subsequent issues more useful to you. We feel you will benefit from our timely information by having it delivered instantly via email and the library website.

You are always welcome to visit us and use any items you find interesting and valuable that are available in the library.

The LIBRARY is the repository of knowledge, a place of learning, study and gateway to information, and is thus the cornerstone of all educational activities at Al-Yamamah University.

Library Management System

YU Library implemented Koha ILMS to modernize library operations, providing:

- Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC)
- Easy book search, reservation, and renewal
- Enhanced reporting and analytics
- Access from on-campus and remotely

About Koha System

Koha is an open-source Integrated Library Management System (ILMS). has been introduced to modernize and automate core library operations, ensuring greater efficiency, accessibility, and user satisfaction. The system supports a wide range of library services including cataloguing, circulation, acquisitions, serials management, and patron services. With Koha's web-based interface, both staff and users can easily access the system from anywhere, enhancing flexibility and convenience. One of the key advantages of Koha is its user-friendly Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC), which allows students and faculty to search, reserve, and renew books online. The system also provides detailed reports and analytics that help the library in decision-making and resource management. The introduction of Koha is a significant step towards aligning the library with the best international practices in information management, promoting transparency, and improving overall service delivery to the university community.

- Users must ensure that materials checked out to them are returned or renewed on or before the date due.

- Office supplies such as diskettes and stationery will not be provided by the library.
- Children are permitted in the library. However, parents or guardians may not leave their children unattended.
- Photography is not permitted unless permission is given in writing
- Change of address, phone number has to be reported to the library staff immediately
- Violations of the rules may result in loss of Library privileges or other appropriate actions.
- The library management can modify the regulations as it may deem advisable

2. Borrowing Policy

Mission Statement

The YU Library is dedicated to providing our students, faculty and staff with access to the library materials they need to succeed.

Purpose

The purpose of the Borrowing Policy is to establish guidelines for circulating library materials and to assist staff in making decisions.

Objective

- Make materials widely available to the YU Community.
- Maximize use of collections and services.
- Facilitate requests for materials.
- Retrieve overdue materials
- To circulate materials quickly and efficiently.
- To maintain circulation records in an efficient manner.

Scope

The policy applies to all users of all YU Libraries. It covers activities relating to the borrowing and use of Library collections and services. It sets:

- Borrowing privileges, responsibilities and restrictions.
- A schedule of fines and fees.

Library Users:

Currently enrolled students, faculty and staff employed by the Al-Yamamah University have full borrowing privileges through students and staff cards. Anyone may use the collection within the library.

Authorized Users:

- University Bona fide / regular students
- University Administrators, Faculty and Staff.

Other Users:

- Part time students should get the referral letter from the Director / Head of the department concerned for borrowing library material.
- Visitors are welcome to use the library collection, but they do not have borrowing privileges and all resources consulted must be used on site.
- Children must be accompanied by an adult / supervisor.

Library Card: a library user must have a valid ID card. Valid university ID cards serve as Library cards. This should be presented at the Circulation Desk every time you borrow books or renew them.

The Circulation desk conducts the charge out and charges in of borrowed library materials, the placement of holds on library materials in circulation, the renewal of borrowed materials, payment of overdue fines, signing of clearances etc.

Loan period for borrowers' group and Limits:

Status of Users	Number of Items Allowed	Books and Documents	Periodicals	Maps	Media	Reservation
Faculty FT/PT	5	30 days / 1 renewal	Not allowed except for special purpose	Not allowed except for special purpose	Not allowed except for special purpose	Available only for FT Faculty
Staff	3	10 days / 1 renewal	Not allowed except for special purpose	Not allowed except for special purpose	Not allowed except for special purpose	Available
Students	5	10 days / 1 renewal	Not allowed except for special purpose	Not allowed except for special purpose	Not allowed except for special purpose	Available
	Note: Part Time Faculty members should provide the referral letter from the concerned Director / Head of the department for borrowing the library material(s)
Visitors	They can use the library facilities and resources inside the library only.

The length of the loan period varies with the status of the borrower and the type of material

Reserve materials:

Materials placed on reserve in the library are those items identified by instructors for use by their students. Instructors may request library items to be kept in the reserve shelf for use by a particular class. Course Reserve materials include library-owned materials and instructor-supplied materials (copies of articles, books, sample tests, etc.). Students may check to see if their instructor has placed items on reserve by searching the Course Reserves section in the library. Any photocopied materials to be placed on reserve must conform to the copyright law. Reserving material should be read within the library.

Reference material:

Reference section contains general reference books such as encyclopedias, dictionaries, atlases, yearbooks, handbooks, manuals, almanacs, geographical sources. Reference books do not circulate and for the library are used only except for special purposes and with the permission of the Library Director.

Renewal: Renewals may be made by calling the Library Circulation Desk at Ext: 3805,4800 or in person at the circulation/enquiry desk or by accessing your account online. One renewal is allowed. Books cannot be renewed if they are subject to recall or have outstanding fines.

Recalls:

The library reserves the right to recall any piece of Library material. Items required by another reader will be recalled and must be returned within 3 days of the recall date. Failure to do so will result in fines being charged at a rate of 50 halalas per day. The user from whom the material was recalled has the right to reserve it and to check the item out again later.

Place on Hold / Reserve:

You can place a hold on any item that is on loan to another borrower. When it is returned and available, you will be notified.

Canceling reservations:

If you no longer need a reserved item, you should cancel your request in person or by phone at our extension -3805 to the circulation/enquiry desk.

Material restricted to "in library" use:

Reference items and selected visual media (films, videos, etc.) and selected audio material (CDs, cassettes, records, etc.), newspapers, university handbooks, and maps are for in-library use only. Periodical and course reserves are also restricted to in-library use only except for special purposes and with the permission of the Library Director.

Returning Loan Items:

You must always bring loans items to the library on the due date. They must be returned to the Circulation Desk before 4.00pm or in case of further queries, contact the Circulation Desk itself

View Your Circulation Record:

You may access your library circulation record online from any YU campus computer by clicking local library search option in favorite folder. Some things that you might do with this function are check the status of a requested item; cancel an unwanted hold; renew materials; check to see how many items you have checked out, when items are due, and what fines you might owe.

Overdue Notices:

The library reserves the right to recall any piece of Library material. Items which are kept beyond the due date are considered to be overdue. Overdue notices / reminders may be sent to borrowers as a matter of courtesy, although the library assumes no obligation to notify borrowers of overdue materials. Failure to receive reminders or overdue notices does not excuse borrowers from the responsibility of returning or renewing items on time to avoid penalties. All library notices are sent via university-issued e-mail when possible.

Borrowing privileges are suspended and will not be reinstated until the materials are returned and fines are paid, or replacement costs and fines are paid if the materials are lost.

Overdue Fines (Fine Schedule):

You will be charged fines if you don't return or renew your books. Fine calculations start on the due date and are payable after the grace period. Official time for determining fines on overdue books will be calculated according to the time determined in the computer system. You must ensure that any outstanding charges on your record remain below SAR 50. You may not continue to borrow from the library if your outstanding charges exceed this level. Unpaid overdue fines will result in suspension of your borrowing privileges and clearance unless fines are paid.

- Regular materials such as Books: SR 0.50 (fifty halalas per item per day).
- Recalled materials: SR 0.50 (fifty halalas per item per day).

- The maximum late fee per item is SR 50.
- 3 days will be the grace period.
- Your total late fee is based on the per-day fee, the number of items that are late and the number of days that they are late. Example: 50 halalas x 5 items x 2 days = SR 5.00

Lost /damaged Material Policy:

If material is lost or damaged, notify the library at once; you will have to pay the full current replacement cost, the amount of the fine will be equal to the actual cost of the item plus library handling / processing fee of SR100.

Returning lost/Paid items:

If items are found and returned, the replacement cost and processing charge are waived but the borrower is responsible for overdue charges. Library users may be refunded the full amount paid toward the item's replacement cost if the complete item is found and returned in good condition within 30 days of payment. Refunds will not be made for items returned after 30 days. Refunds will not be given for single parts of a set

Appealing Library Charges

Any borrower who wishes to question a library charge or processing fee, you may appeal it by filling out Library charges Appeal Form. An appeal of this policy may be made to the Circulation Desk Staff. Please provide specific details about the charge(s) you wish to appeal. The decision for this appeal will be final. If possible, attach a copy of the library bill / Statement. Please ensure that the charges you are appealing are clearly indicated. In your appeal, kindly explain why you believe the charges should be removed or adjusted.

The Borrower may submit a written appeal. Appeals for library charges must be received within 30 days of the original date of the charge. Appeals after one month will not be considered. If an appeal is accepted for consideration, the fine (in its original amount) is either waived, adjusted, or re-posted to the BORROWER's account at the end of the appeals process. Appeals received without the appeals form will not be considered.

Reasons generally not regarded as valid for canceling or reducing charges:

- Lack of knowledge of library policy
- Disagreement with library fine or fee structure
- Inability to pay fees and charges
- Material loaned to a third party
- Non-receipt or late receipt of library reminder notice
- Being out of town
- Forgetting the due date or failing to renew on time
- Term breaks, illness, leaves, vacations, exams, car problems, etc.

Penalties

- The penalty for stealing books, periodicals, and other material from the library is suspension of library privileges for the rest of the semester. Aside from this, the case will be referred to the University Disciplinary committee for further deliberations and actions.

- Mutilation of library materials is an offense, and it will be considered as a damaged item. In addition, library privileges may be suspended for the rest of the semester. The case will also be referred to the Disciplinary committee for further proper action
- Unpaid bills will result in a block for library privileges, and the case will also be referred to the Disciplinary committee for further proper action.

Responsibilities of the Borrowers

- Borrowers are fully responsible for all borrowed materials and must know the due date to avoid fines.
- ID cards should not be used other than yourself.
- Library materials are not transferable, and you are prohibited from lending library materials to others.
- Borrowers must notify the library of any address and telephone number changes.
- The library will charge fines on late items, and other sanctions may be imposed.
- If you lose a book or it is stolen, you will have to pay the full current replacement cost.
- The library has open stacks. After you have collected the material, you would like to borrow, check the items out at the Circulation Desk.
- Overdue notices are mailed only as a courtesy reminder. Failure to receive notices does not absolve borrowers of their responsibilities.
- Compliance with current copyright law is the responsibility of the user.
- Materials must be returned in the same physical condition as when they were checked out.

For any further information regarding loans or reservations, library fines or overdue items, please contact staff at the Circulation desk: Library Assistant 3805.

3. Computer and Internet use policy

“All users of computer workstations must agree to abide by the following rules”

- Users are responsible for determining that the information they access is acceptable, reliable, and suitable to their needs. Internet access is a privilege, not a right, and as such can be withdrawn from those who use it irresponsibly.
- Most resources available via the Internet and other electronic information networks are “global” rather than “local” resources. The library does not and cannot control the information content available through global resources such as information obtained from outside sources via the Internet.
- Users may not attempt to change or modify hardware or software configurations or install software for personal use on the library’s workstations.
- Use of the workstations for personal, entertainment and Commercial purpose is not allowed.
- Headphone volume must be kept to low levels
- The library accepts no responsibility for any damage or loss of data arising directly or indirectly from the use of these facilities.
- Use of computer workstations to disseminate offensive material is prohibited.
- Violators of this policy may lose their access privileges.

4. Cell Phone use policy

- The library building is designated as a “cell phone free zone.”

- Users should turn off or make all cell phones silent when entering the library building.
- In an emergency, when users must make or receive a cell phone call, they are required to move to the stairwells and use their phone quietly.
- Avoid using a cell phone's camera or binocular features in the library
- If you wish to report inappropriate cell phone use, contact a library staff member at the Information desk.

5. Group Study Room Policy

- No reservation for this room is required and availability is on a first-come/first-served basis.
- Students, faculty, and staff may use the room for short-term needs. On any calendar day, you may use a maximum two-hour time slot, but you may use the room as long as necessary if the room is not in demand by others. If the room is in high demand – you may be asked to limit your use of the room.
- Priority use is given to GROUPS OF TWO or more. An individual using a group study room may be asked to relinquish it for a group's use. When not being used by a group, a room may be used for individual study on a first-come, first-serve basis.
- Please note that the CAPACITY of the study room is about 15 people. Sign-up sheets are available at the Information /Enquiry desk

Recent Activities & Updates

Workshop & Conference

Mr. Sultan Alshammari (General Supervisor of YU Library) attended a workshop organized by the Royal Commission for AlUla and UNESCO in AlUla Governorate from July 28 to 30, 2025.

The workshop was held under the theme: “Supporting documentary heritage preservation in Saudi Arabia,” which highlights strategic efforts led by the King Abdulaziz Foundation for Research and Archives (Darah) and the Royal Commission for AlUla (RCU) in cooperation with UNESCO. These initiatives focus on digitization and partnerships to enhance access through digital platforms, build capacity for conservation professionals, and raise public awareness through exhibitions and conferences—thereby securing the nation’s rich historical and cultural legacy for future generations.

According to Mr. Sultan, the workshop was an excellent experience and a highly valuable opportunity, especially in relation to library management and operations.

AI Training Session

The library staff, both male and female, attended the Artificial Intelligence (AI Tools) training session organized by YU as part of the university's staff development program from July 5 to 6, 2025.

Books Cataloging and Indexing

During the academic year 2024/25, more than 800 books in both English and Arabic were added to our library collection. All books have been catalogued and entered in Koha library system.

Library Annual Report for the Academic Year 2024–25

We are currently working on it, and it will be submitted to the university authorities as soon as possible.

Library Survey

Introduction:

The library survey is part of the continuous improvement of YU libraries. The survey was prepared based on the request of the libraries supervision committee to consult faculty and students to identify the areas of improvement.

The survey is composed of 14 questions prepared by the Central library and It was forwarded to faculty and students by the quality department.

According to the survey report, the library administration has prepared an action plan and submitted it to the YU management and the following recommendations and suggestions have been resolved based on its necessity and priority. i.e.

QR Code for Registration in the Koha Library System

To provide easy access to the library catalog, we have created a QR code for YU students and faculty. Once you scan the code, you can log in using your university ID and password to access the catalog. You may search for library resources by title, author, subject, ISBN, or call number. The system will display the availability status, number of copies, and location of each item.

Modern Architect

Author: Simon Kwan
Publisher: Archiworld
Publication date: 2012
Edition: First edition
ISBN: 9788957703915

Summary: Modern Architect: Simon Kwan, a collection of works by modern architects at a glance. Architect Simon Kwan's work was detailed with photos and drawings. Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, Racing Club Environment Center, Mong Mang Wai Science Park, Hong Kong Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong Performing Arts Academy.

The Arab Contribution to Islamic Art:

From the Seventh to the Fifteenth Centuries

Author: Wijdan Ali (Author)
Publisher: Amer Univ in Cairo Pr
Publication date: 1993
Edition: First edition
ISBN: 978-9774244766

Summary: Islamic civilization represents one of the richest and most prolific phases in the cultural history of humanity. Yet it did not generate serious and widespread interest in the West until the beginning of the twentieth century, when art historians and archaeologists began to analyze and evaluate it from their own point of view and according to their own esthetics. This book attempts to appraise the early periods of Islamic art within its own cultural framework and according to Islamic esthetics. It places the development of Islamic art during the early periods within its historical context and social and political environment. It emphasizes the role the Arabs played in the way they molded their culture with that of the conquered peoples and brought about Islamic civilization.

Publisher: Daab Publications
Publication date: 2005
Edition: First edition
ISBN: 978-3937718460

Summary: Tokyo constitutes the most populated metropolitan area on the planet, it houses 33 million inhabitants. It is also, possibly, the megalopolis with the highest proportion of recent architecture, what is a result of two significant events: The earthquake of 1923 and the bombardments of World War II. The economic development that took place after the war gave rise to a modern city that stands out on account of its complex infrastructures. In no other city are the boundaries between inside and outside, public and private, up and down as blurred as in Tokyo; this lack of frontiers has shaped an urban setting without parallel which is reflected equally by the most state-of-the-art skyscraper and the most intimate store. This amalgam of architectural typologies has established itself as a reference point for designers from all over the world. Projects are listed in alphabetical order to the architects and designers, presented in a very clear layout. Plans show the layouts of the buildings and single rooms.

Animated Landscapes: History, Form and Function

Author: Chris Pallant
Publisher: Bloomsbury Academic
Publication date: 2015
Edition: First edition
ISBN: 978-1628923506

Summary: Studying landscape in cinema isn't quite new; it'd be hard to imagine Woody Allen without New York, or the French New Wave without Paris. But the focus on live-action cinema leaves a significant gap in studying animated films. With the almost total pervasiveness of animation today, this collection provides the reader with a greater sense of how the animated landscapes of the present relate to those of the past. Including essays from international perspectives, Animated Landscapes introduces an idea that has seemed, literally, to be in the background of animation studies.

Summary: This book showcases small hotels, all located in the United States, designed by architects who use light and materials in interesting and intentional ways. The designs also deliberately connect to their local history, context, or land – in many cases all three. Both the architecture and the operations harmonize with the place, whether that is a bustling city, small town, or natural area. Many are new buildings, but some are adaptive reuse projects or renovations of historic properties, extending the connectivity of the place into the future.

A condensed history of lodging helps to place the many typologies and histories of hospitality in relationship to world events and includes the many factors that influence hotel development such as business practices, technology, and even politics. Hotels are influenced by larger trends and innovations in hospitality such as the emergence of a variety of creative possibilities for future travel. A final chapter includes speculation on travel trends and encourages us all to wander more intentionally.

Tips & Guidance

1. Make the Most of E-Resources

Access thousands of e-books, journals, and databases anytime, anywhere through the library portal. Remember to log in with your university credentials for off-campus access through LMS

2. Search Smart

Use advanced search options in the Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) and databases

(through LMS) for search the books and journals by title, author, subject, ISBN and ISSN.
<http://library.yu.edu.sa/>

3. Plan Ahead During Exams

Libraries are busiest during exam season. Book study rooms in advance and make use of extended library hours.

4. Respect Shared Spaces

Keep noise to a minimum, set phones to silent, and use designated discussion zones for group work. A quiet library benefits everyone.

5. Ask a Librarian

Stuck with a research question? Our librarians are here to guide you in finding reliable sources. Don't hesitate to ask for assistance at the reference desk or via email.

6. Stay Updated

Follow the library's website and notice boards to stay informed about new arrivals, events, and workshops.

Afterword
