3. General Regulations

1. Students may not hold more than one internal or external scholarship concurrently, nor transfer between scholarship categories. Applicants must not be recipients of other scholarships from external institutions or funding entities.

2. Scholarship duration is limited to:
 - Four (4) academic years (eight regular semesters) for programs in Business Administration, Law, Industrial Engineering, Computer Networks Engineering, and Software Engineering.
 - Five (5) academic years (ten regular semesters) for Architecture programs.
3. Scholarships do not cover tuition fees for summer semesters or cooperative training programs.
4. Continued eligibility requires full compliance with University regulations. Students must have a disciplinary record free of violations at Al Yamamah University or any other institution.
5. Non-Saudi students must maintain valid legal residency status within the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.
6. Students are responsible for maintaining the academic performance required for scholarship continuation.
7. Al Yamamah University reserves the right to revise scholarship admission criteria, continuation requirements, or cancellation policies in accordance with institutional regulations and quality assurance standards.
8. Students removed from the Excellence Scholarship Program may apply for other University scholarship programs if eligible; however, reinstatement into the Excellence Scholarship Program is not permitted.
9. Upgrading from a lower scholarship category to a higher category is not permitted, regardless of academic improvement.
10. Students enrolled in pre-university programs may remain for a maximum of two academic semesters, which will be counted as part of the total scholarship duration.
11. Scholarships are formally reviewed at the end of each academic semester. Decisions regarding continuation, downgrade, or cancellation are based on verified academic performance.
12. Students must pay the remaining tuition balance after scholarship deduction in a single installment prior to the start of each academic semester.
13. The University Scholarship Committee reserves the authority to suspend or cancel scholarships in cases of non-compliance with University policies.
14. The University may cancel the scholarship if a student withdraws or interrupts studies in any semester, subject to committee review.
15. The University reserves the right to amend, suspend, or cancel scholarships in whole or in part when deemed necessary in accordance with institutional governance procedures.

16. Final authority for the approval or cancellation of scholarships rests exclusively with the President of Al Yamamah University.
